Dear [redacted]

Your letter of 2 December 1951 has just come to hand, and I regret the delay of this reply.

I plan to be out of the office until some time after the first of the New Year. Therefore, I suggest that if you still desire to see me you come to Washington any time at your convenience during the week of 14 January 1952.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
